

SALTUS Company Information

The German based SALTUS-WERK Max Forst GmbH is one of the worldwide leading manufacturers of mechanical and electronic Torque Wrenches as well as high precision specialty tools. The SALTUS brand is well acknowledged for innovative products and solutions of high quality and precision.

In May 2008 SALTUS-WERK Max Forst GmbH was successfully spun-off from its former parent holding SALTUS Technology AG and since then is operating again as an independent company and the sole owner of the SALTUS brand.

Since May 2008 SALTUS-WERK Max Forst GmbH is no longer associated to the further development of SALTUS Technology AG.

SALTUS-WERK Max Forst GmbH is constantly taking actions to better meet the specific needs of our customers and markets. We therefore feel well prepared to cope with the challenges of the international technology market and to further provide you with the accustomed products, solutions and services.

We wish you a successful new year and look forward to an ongoing loyal and faithful partnership.
